DANA,
It's been a great year I'm really glad we started to hang around with each other again.

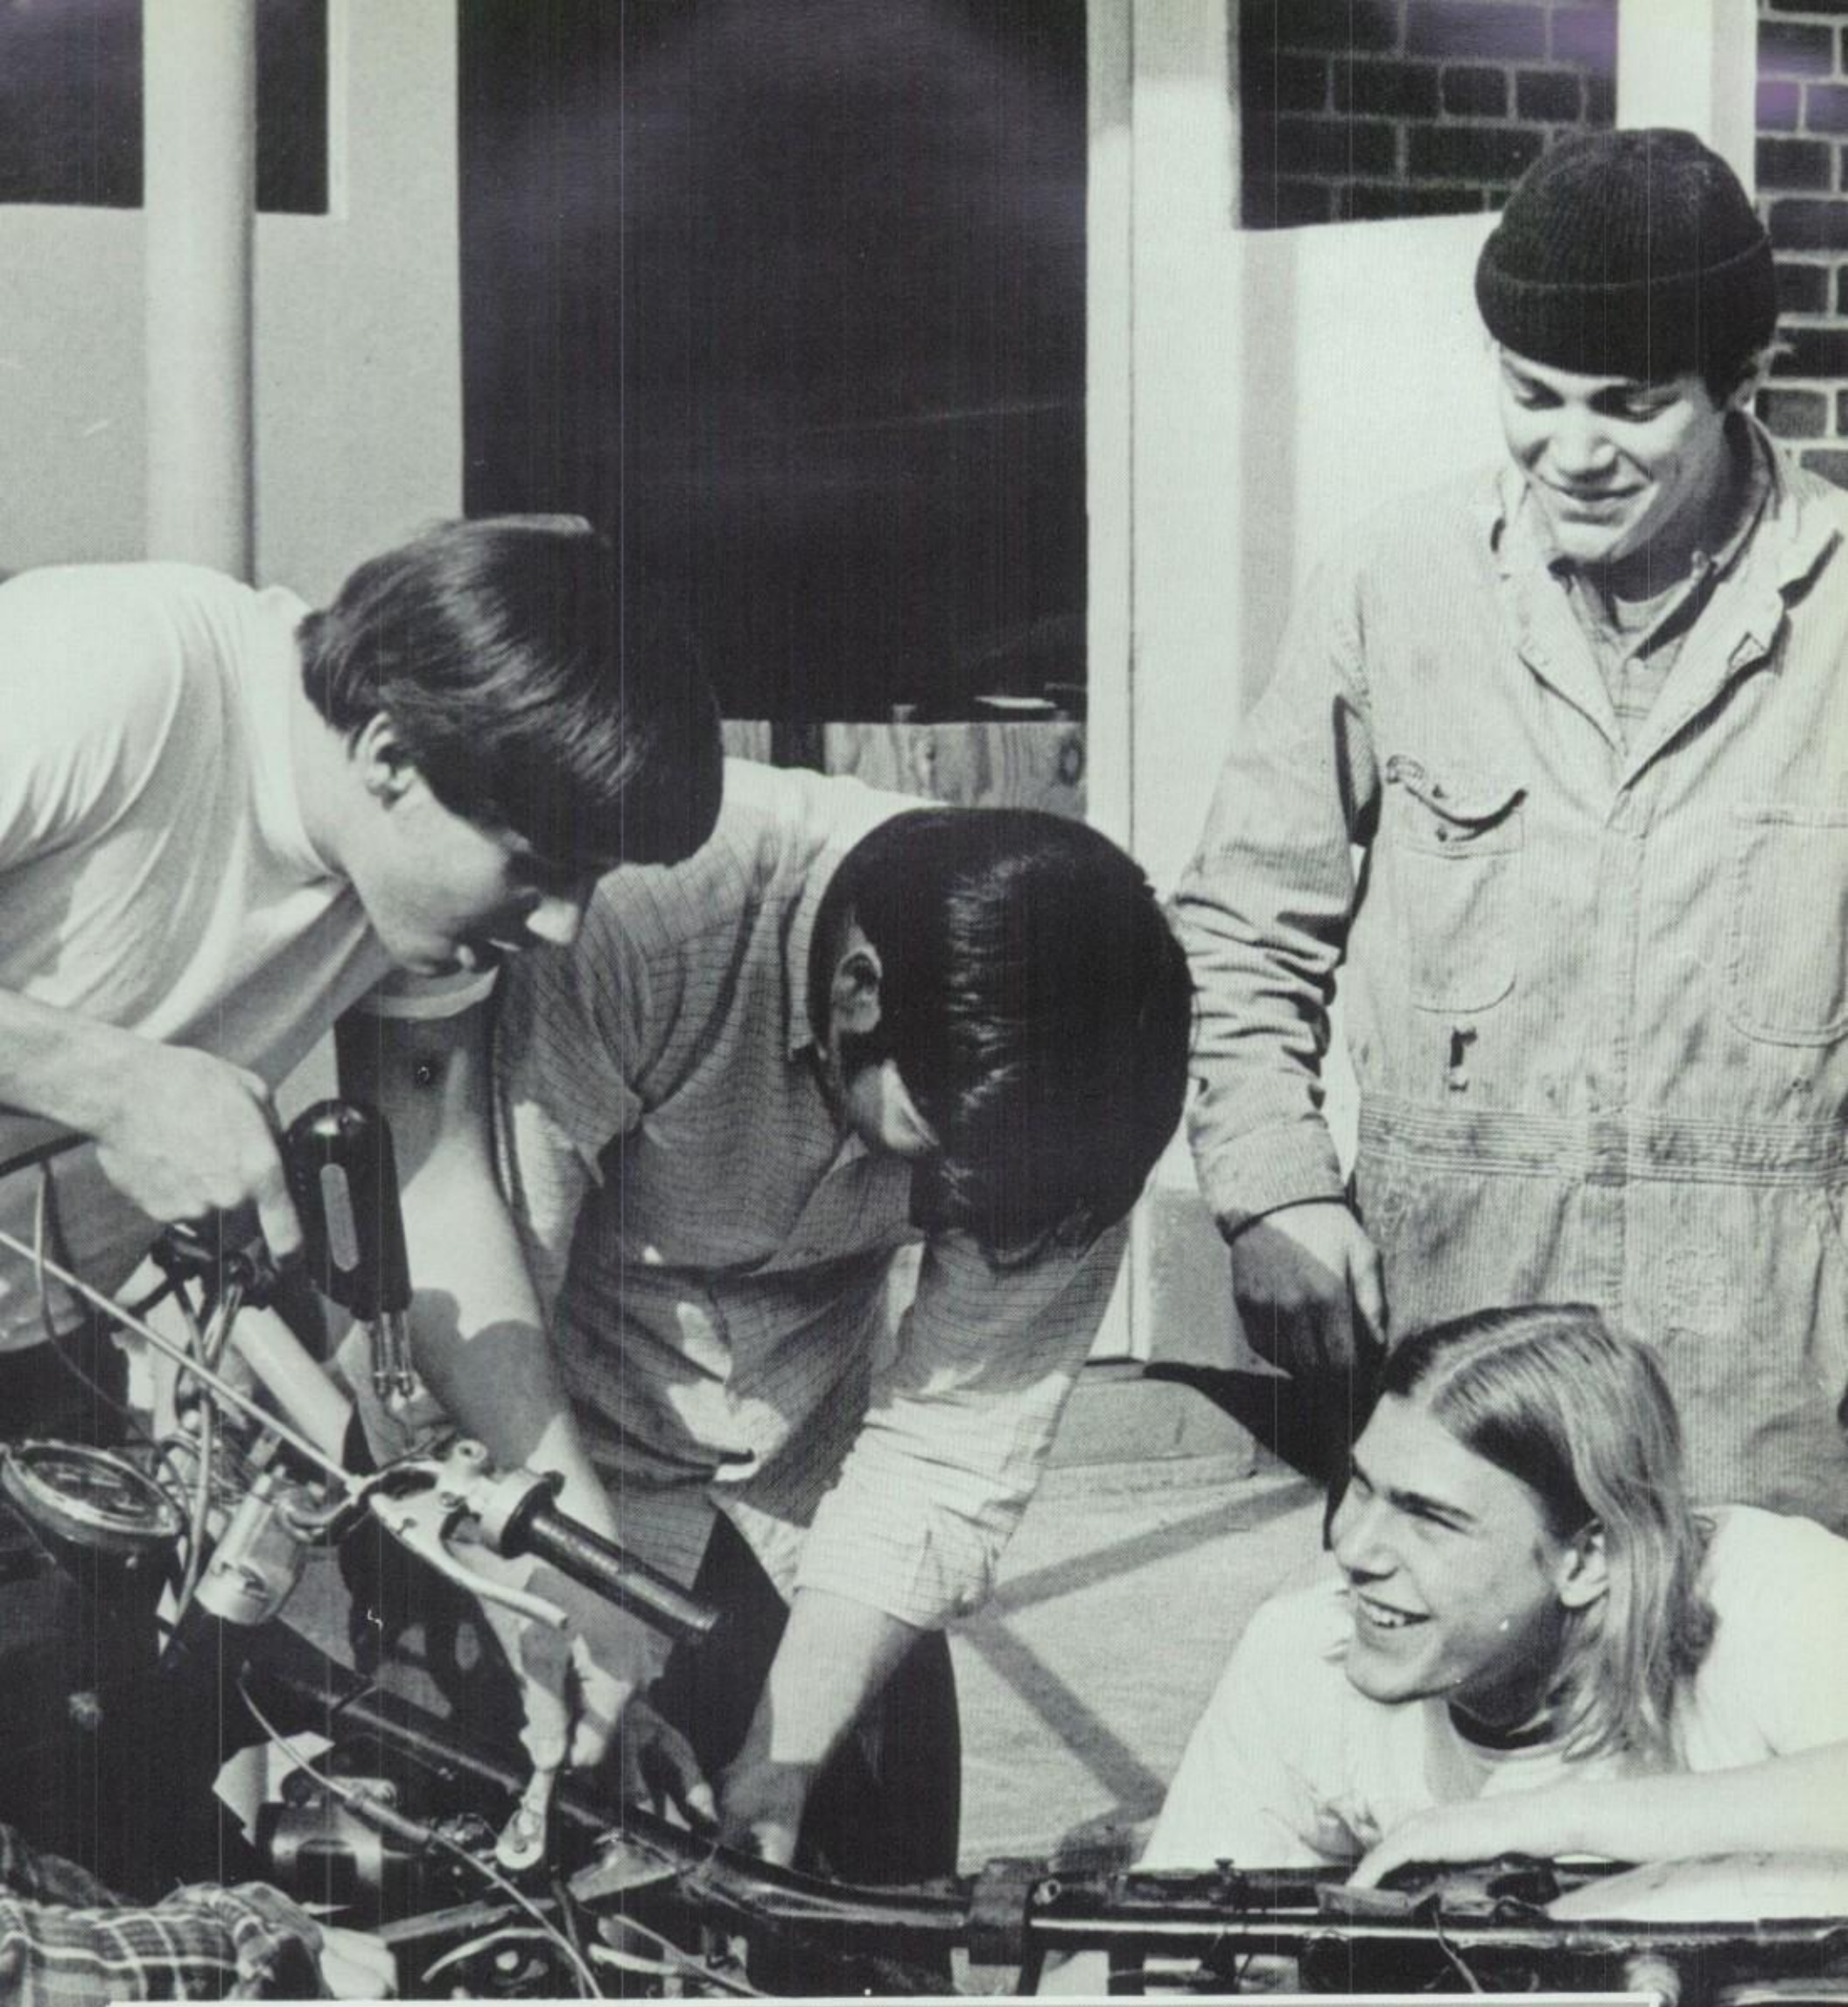
EXODUS

"What a man thinks of himself, that is what determines, or rather indicates, his fate."
— Henry David Thoreau
Congratulations from the Class of 1974



We
the children gone by,
we have laughed,
dreamed,
smiled
loved
then somehow lost
and now we find ourselves no longer the children we once were but not yet
the men we shall be,
realizing that lollipops
and bicycle-scraped elbows have slowly faded
and merely become an integral part of the mirage we call memories, weeping for somewhere
along the way
we have lost yesterday
and are not quite sure where to find tomorrow.

EXIT
Hello . . . Goodbye . . .
from the Seniors of 1973

Yet we search and leave not an alley unwalked
or a leaf unturned,
never once lingering
or looking back for some unseen someone they tell you is always there that someone who keeps whispering
that it lies

just around the next corner or over the next hill so we move on having no one better to whom we may turn than that conscience which lies in the depths of our own reality.

Congratulations to the Class of '73

We look around us
with open eyes and a conscious striving to comprehend
a world of falling stars fallen dreams
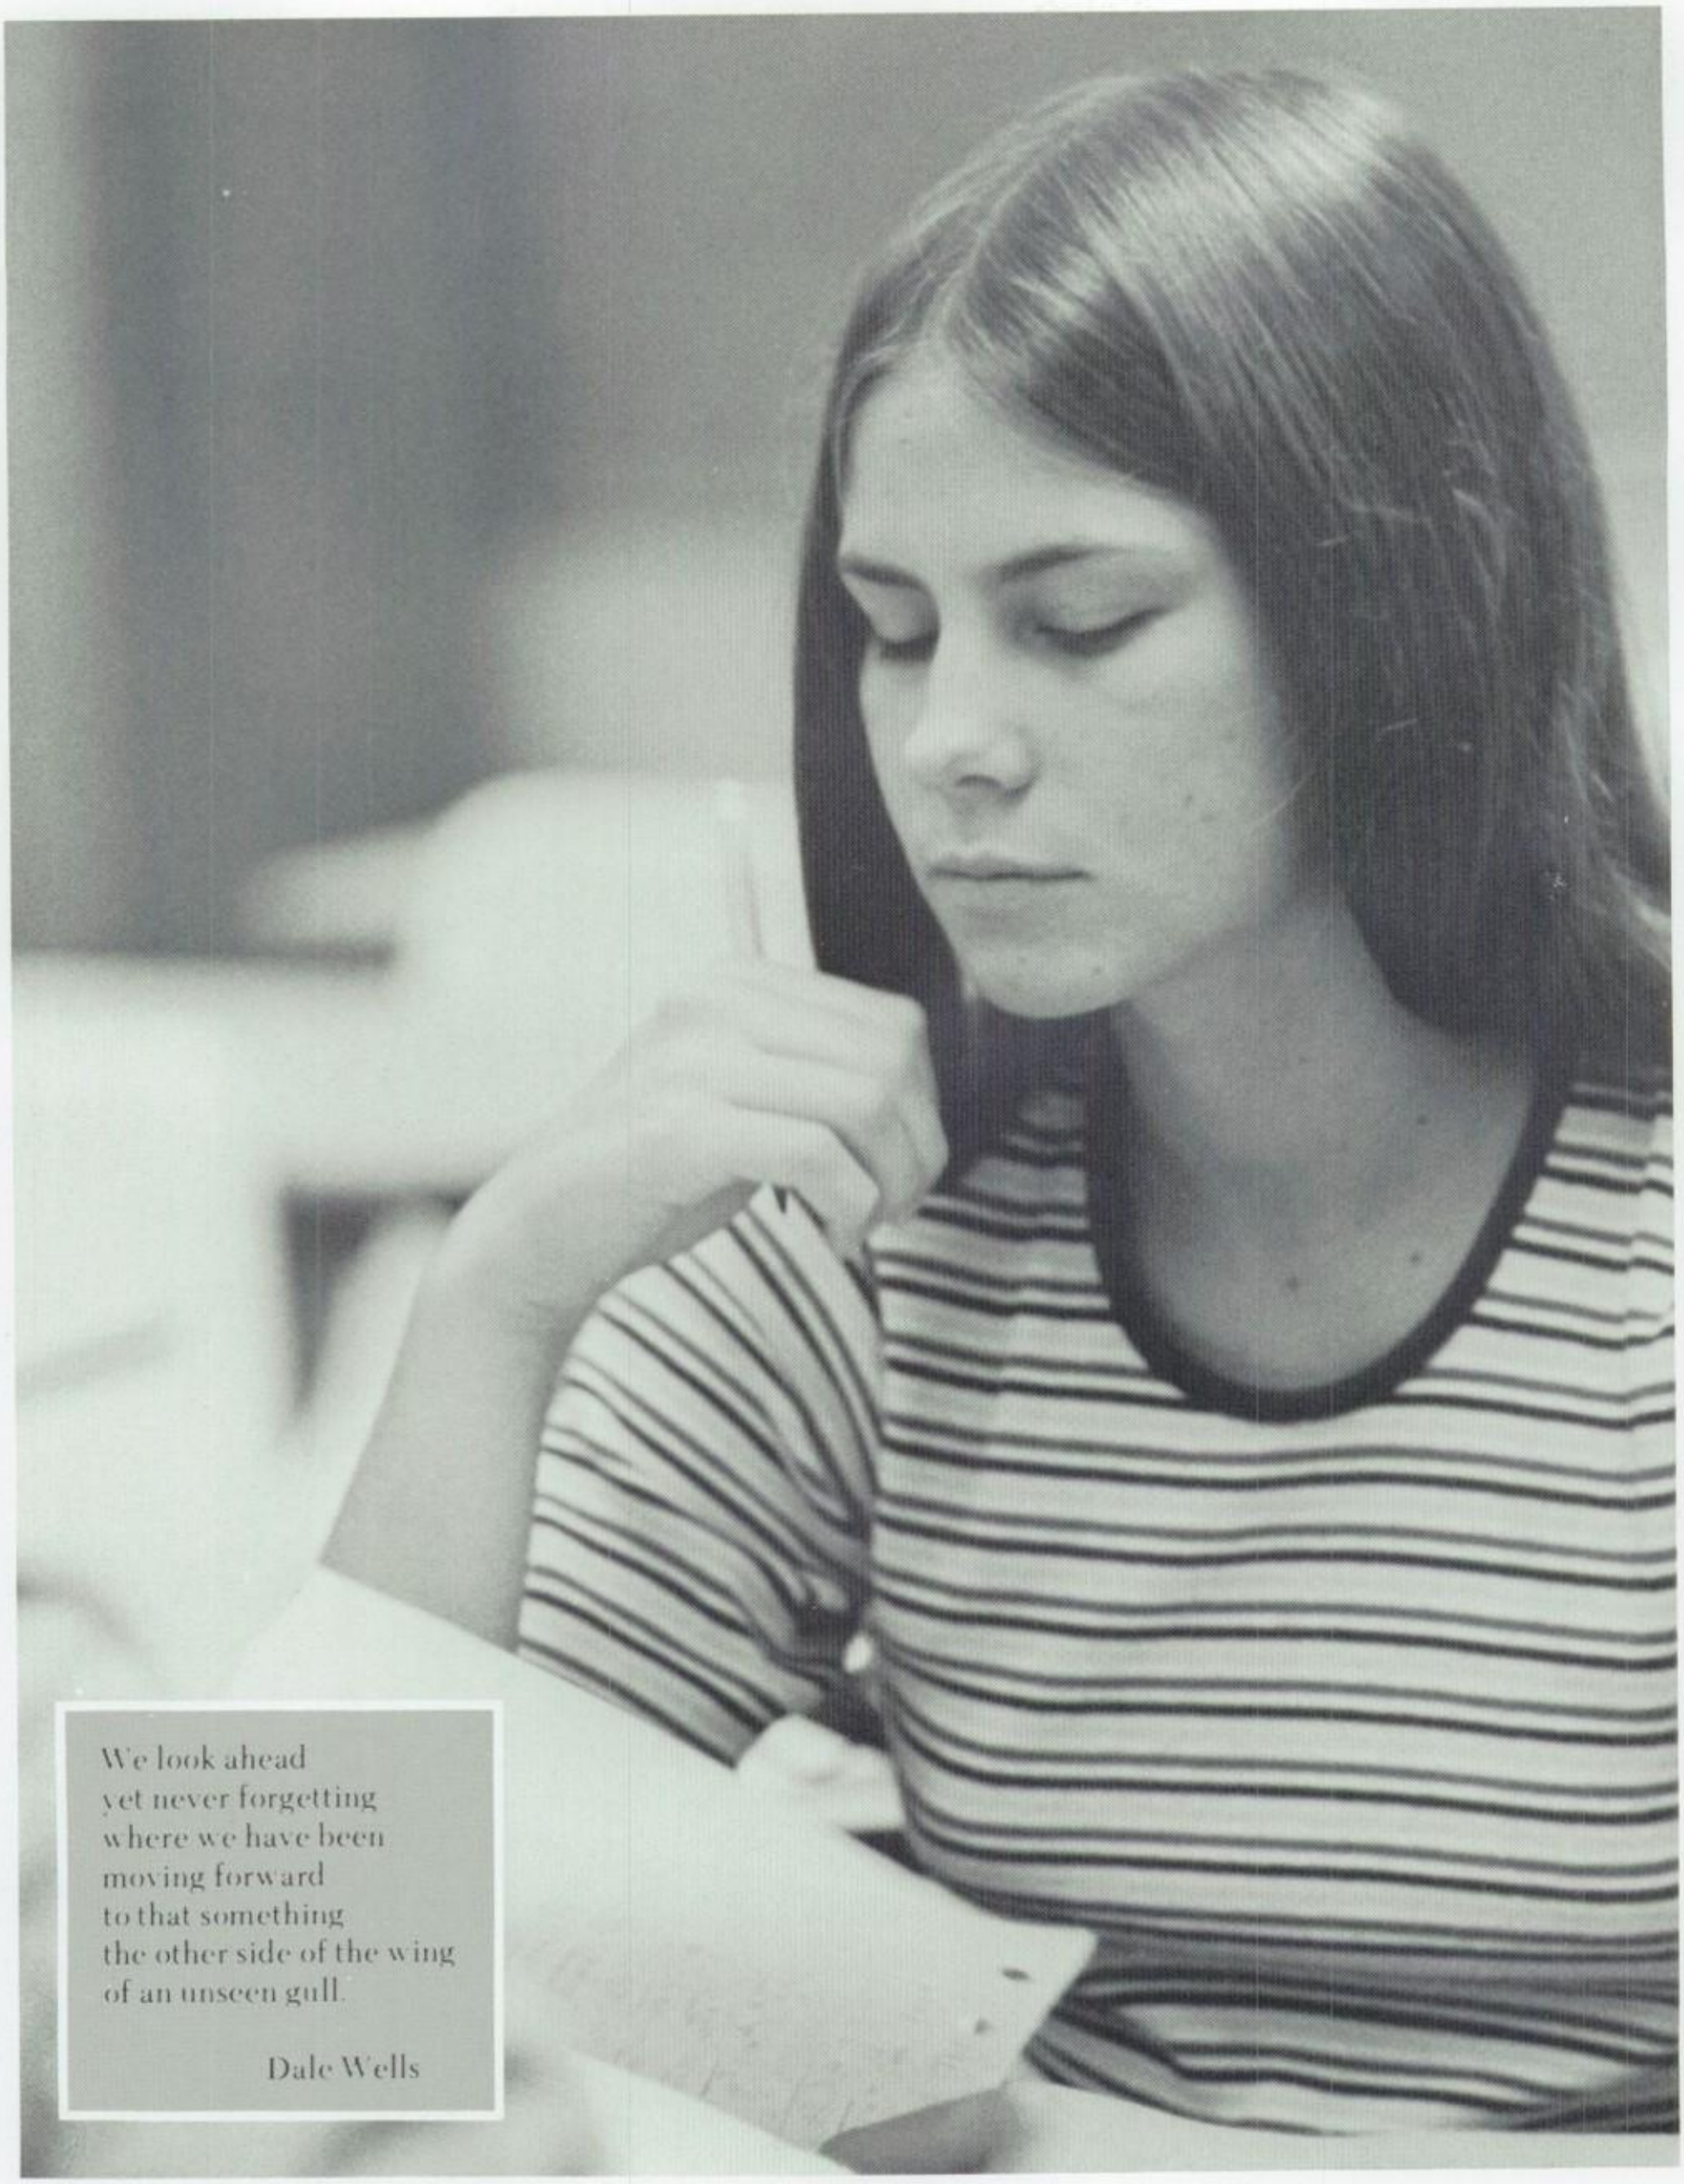
and rain covered power lines.



We look ahead
yet never forgetting
where we have been moving forward
to that something
the other side of the wing of an unseen gull.

And though he tried to look properly severe for his students, Fletcher Seagull suddenly saw them all as they really were just for a moment, and he more than liked, he loved what it was he saw. No limits, Jonathan? he thought, and he smiled.
